The Filianic Rosary consists of 15 decades, each of which focuses on a different mystery of the life of Christ. The mysteries are divided into three groups: the Joyful Mysteries, the Luminous Mysteries, and the Sorrowful Mysteries.

Each mystery is accompanied by a meditation that helps the reader to reflect on the role of the Holy Spirit in that particular event. The meditations are written in a simple and accessible style, and they are designed to help readers to grow in their understanding of the Spirit's work in their own lives.

Garlands of Grace: Filianic Rosary Meditations is a book that contains meditations on each mystery of the Filianic Rosary. The meditations are written by Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, and they are based on his own experience of praying the Filianic Rosary.

In this book, Fr. Gaitley provides a rich and insightful commentary on the mysteries of the Filianic Rosary. He helps readers to see how the Holy Spirit is at work in every aspect of Christ's life, from his birth to his death and resurrection.
