The Genesis of a Scandal

In 1995, a 22-year-old Monica Lewinsky entered the White House as an intern. Unbeknownst to the public, she would soon become entangled in a clandestine affair with the President, a man 27 years her senior. As their relationship deepened, Lewinsky's colleagues noticed her growing infatuation and the suspicious disappearance of the President during their scheduled meetings.

The Jewish Dog Email

The scandal reached its boiling point when a conservative website, The Drudge Report, published an anonymous email in 1998. Titled "The Jewish Dog," the email contained graphic details of Lewinsky's affair with Clinton, drawing its name from an anti-Semitic slur used by the President to describe the woman he was sleeping with.

Political Earthquake

The Jewish Dog email sent the political establishment into a frenzy. The news media went into overdrive, and the public was split between those who condemned Clinton's actions and those who believed the scandal was a partisan witch hunt.
