

The Prince, The Poison Cup, and the Curse of the Sprouls

A Tale of Betrayal, Revenge, and the Supernatural

Set in the tumultuous world of 16th-century Scotland, The Prince, The Poison Cup, and the Curse of the Sprouls is a gripping tale of betrayal, revenge, and the supernatural. The novel follows the fortunes of Prince James Stewart, who is poisoned by his ambitious uncle, the Earl of Bothwell. As James lies dying, he curses Bothwell and his descendants, vowing that they will never know peace or happiness.

Centuries later, the curse of the Sprouls continues to haunt the family, as each generation is plagued by tragedy and misfortune. But when the young heir to the Sproul fortune, Lachlan, begins to investigate his family's dark past, he unwittingly sets in motion a chain of events that could finally break the curse.
